WORKING WITH PHOTOGRAPHERS AND INFLUENCERS

Your business can benefit from working with photographers and social media influencers in many ways, including:

• Producing high quality content
• Reaching your target audience
• Providing a sense of creditability and trust to your brand

SOURCING A PHOTOGRAPHER

DNSW features one Sydney-based and one Regional NSW-based photographer each month on our websites and social media channels, you can find their work portfolio and contact information on:

sydney.com/sydney-life/author/featured-photographer
visitnsw.com/nsw-tales/author/featured-photographer

SOURCING A SOCIAL MEDIA INFLUENCER

DNSW’s PR Team work with a wide range of social media influencers, hosting famils for them to visit various destinations - attending events and trialing tourism products. If you’d like to be part of the famil program or ask for a list of suggested influencers to work directly with your business, contact our PR Team via media@dnsw.com.au

You can also consult a talent agency to source social media influencers, which may incur additional fees.

KEY CONSIDERATION CRITERIA

• The influencer’s following should align with your target audience so the content is relevant and can reach your ideal audience effectively.

• Find the right balance between the influencer promoting your brand/product and your business promoting the influencer.

• Content produced should adhere to guidelines in this document.

• Always use #ilovesydney when posting Sydney-related content and #NewSouthWales for Regional NSW-related content.
ORGANISING INSTAMEETS

Whether you work for a destination, operate a tour or venue, organising an Instameet is a great way to generate social content and show off your product. Below are some tips to organise an Instameet and how DNSW can provide support.

What is an Instameet?
An Instameet is an event where Instagram users gather and walk through a pre-determined route together while taking photos on the way and uploading them to Instagram.

Why host an Instameet?
Instagram users enjoy Instameets as they are a great opportunity to meet new people and share photography tips while experiencing a destination and/or an event. Hosting an Instameet is a great way to collate relevant user-generated content (images/gifs/videos) that you can re-share on your own channels.

KEY THINGS TO CONSIDER

1. Plan the meet-up location, time and walking route
   Consider timing to avoid busy days and times of the day to allow Instagrammers to get the best shots.

2. Define a specific hashtag
   In addition to using the official DNSW hashtag (e.g. #NewSouthWales), you can also ask attendees to use another specific hashtag so you can track all content that are generated from the Instameet. Include this hashtag in all your posts promoting the event to let everyone know.

3. Invite Instagrammers
   Decide whether it is an invite-only event or open to the general public. For invite-only, email the Instagrammers you’d like to invite. Otherwise, do a post on your Instagram account at least one month in advance, and a post every week leading up to the event to build reach and attendance. Ask your community to share that info with their friends and followers. Instagram should be your primary channel to promote this as it is the platform your potential attendees are on.

4. Notify the Destination NSW Social Media Team
   Share as much detail as possible with the team via email so we can monitor the event hashtag and engage with the user-generated content accordingly.

5. On the day
   Make sure you have staff guiding everyone through the pre-determined walking route and reminding everyone to use the official DNSW hashtag and your specific Instameet hashtag when posting on Instagram throughout the event.

6. After the event
   Feel free to share your Instameet content with the DNSW social media team via email.
