Visitors will find Sydney’s markets pulsing with creativity, fashion and flavours. From handmade designer jewellery and Aussie souvenirs to the freshest gourmet delights, Sydney’s markets provide a great taste of the city’s creative flair.

Sydney markets

Balmain Market, Balmain
One of Sydney's oldest markets offers handmade arts and crafts, pre-loved fashion, second-hand books, recycled and new art, jewellery and contemporary homewares. In the grounds of St Andrew’s Church on Darling Street, Balmain Market is open every Saturday (except for the first Saturday in January) from 8:30am until 4pm, weather permitting.

Bondi Markets, Bondi Beach
Bondi Markets feature original designer clothing, handmade jewellery, arts, crafts, homewares, retro furniture, vintage clothes and more. Located at Bondi Beach Public School, just across the road from the beach, the markets operate every Sunday from 10am until 4pm.

Bondi also has a farmers market every Saturday from 9am until 1pm, featuring fresh seasonal fruit and vegetables, organically grown meat and poultry, artisan breads, home-made jams, cheese, condiments and more.

Chinatown Markets Sydney, Haymarket
Each Friday evening, from 4pm until 11pm, the Chinatown Markets showcase the work of local designers, as well as Asian street food and unique products for tourists.

EQ Village Markets, Entertainment Quarter, Moore Park
EQ Village Markets operate every Wednesday and Saturday from 9am until 2pm with quality produce that’s fresh and local.

Current as at 1 May 2015
Eveleigh Farmers Markets, Darlington
The Eveleigh Farmers Market is an undercover foodies’ market, home to more than 70 regular stallholders who bring the freshest seasonal produce, gourmet fare, flowers and wine to Sydney’s inner west each Saturday from 8am until 1pm.
www.eveleighmarket.com.au

Glebe Markets, Glebe
This alternative-style market offers everything from books and household goods to second-hand clothing and jewellery. Visitors will find art, antiques and countless hidden gems among the bric-a-brac. Located in the grounds of Glebe Public School, the market is open every Saturday from 10am until 4pm.
www.glebemarkets.com.au

Kirribilli Markets, Kirribilli
Kirribilli Art and Design Markets showcase the works of local artists, crafts folk and designers selling original paintings, ceramics, homewares, fashion, accessories and millinery under the cover of the Burton Street Tunnel on the second Sunday of the month from 9am until 3pm.

The Kirribilli Fashion Markets operate concurrently with 120 outdoor stalls at Bradfield Park selling new, second-hand and vintage fashion. Enjoy live entertainment, market food and fabulous harbour views.

The Kirribilli General Markets sell new and second-hand fashion and accessories, gifts, homewares and bric-a-brac on the fourth Saturday of the month, from 7am until 3pm.
www.kirribillimarkets.com

Manly Market Place, Manly
Manly Market Place offers a collection of unique handmade arts and crafts, fashion, jewellery and quality souvenirs, many of which have been inspired by the local landscape, culture and lifestyle. Located at the lower end of Sydney Road, adjacent to The Corso, the markets are open every Saturday and Sunday from 10am until 5pm.
www.manlymarketplace.com.au

Mosman Village Art and Craft Market, Mosman
Known as one of Sydney’s finest handcraft and arts markets, the Mosman Village Art and Craft Market is held on the first Saturday of the month from 8am until 3pm. As well as around 150 art and craft stalls, there are gourmet food providers and music in the Mosman Square and Village Green. While there is no January market, an evening Christmas Market is held in December.

Current as at 1 May 2015
Paddington Markets, Paddington
This popular market is a creative and colourful mix of contemporary design, retro collectables and bohemian atmosphere. More than 250 stallholders, artists and emerging designers sell fashion, jewellery, gifts, homewares and original artworks in the grounds of the historic Paddington Uniting Church on Oxford Street. Open every Saturday from 10am until 5pm, Paddington Markets have become a Sydney institution.
www.paddingtonmarkets.com.au

Rozelle Markets, Rozelle
Rozelle Markets feature new and second-hand bric-a-brac, furniture, music and books, vintage fashion, jewellery and antiques. Crystal healings, tarot readings and massages are also available while multicultural food stalls add to the eclectic and bohemian atmosphere. Open every Saturday and Sunday from 9am until 4pm.
www.rozellemarkets.com.au

Sydney Fish Market, Pyrmont
Open from 7am daily, Sydney Fish Market is the second largest seafood market in the world. Arrive early to watch the wholesale fish auctions on a behind-the-scenes tour, enjoy a fresh seafood lunch by the water’s edge or join a cooking class to get tips on seafood cookery at the Sydney Seafood School.
www.sydneyfishmarket.com.au

Sydney’s Paddy’s Markets, Haymarket and Flemington Sydney’s Paddy’s Market is the place to find everything from clothing and souvenirs to homewares and fresh seasonal produce. The Haymarket location is open from Wednesday to Sunday from 10am until 6pm while Sydney Markets at Flemington is open from Friday to Sunday.
www.paddysmarkets.com.au

The Rocks Market, The Rocks
There’s something for everyone at The Rocks Market with everything from homemade jams and designer homewares, to toys and gifts, music even the chance to go for a ride on a Harley Davidson. Open every Saturday and Sunday from 10am until 5pm.
The Rocks Foodie Market gets the weekend off to an early start with a smorgasbord of seasonal and artisan produce, fresh flowers and mellow jazz tunes from 9am until 3pm on Fridays.
www.therocksmarket.com.au

The Sydney Morning Herald Growers Market, Pyrmont
Meet the growers and purveyors of fresh local fare, watch cooking demonstrations by guest chefs, and taste some amazing food. Each stall displays the “food miles” of their wares (the distance the produce has travelled to get to market) and is held at Pyrmont Bay Park on the first Saturday of the month (except January), from 7am until 11am.
www-growersmarketpyrmont.com.au